

Please do not lessen the requirements of the Indiana telephone privacy law by allowing federal law to override state law. The Indiana law has brought peace and sanity to our home. My family can now eat dinner and have some quality time together without sales calls interrupting our evening.